Carl Amrhein Scholarship

The UB Canadian-American Studies Committee is pleased to offer the Carl Amrhein Scholarship for student exchange between the University of Toronto and the University at Buffalo. The Amrhein Scholarship is made possible by funding from the Canadian Embassy and the UB College of Arts and Sciences. Carl Amrhein was a graduate student at the University at Buffalo. He became Dean of the College of Arts and Science at the University of Toronto and worked with UB to establish the exchange.

Eligibility requirements:

- Applicants must be currently enrolled, full-time, matriculated students in good standing in the College of Arts and Science at the University of Toronto or the College of Arts and Sciences at the University at Buffalo.

- Applicants must have applied to participate in the UB/UofT exchange program.

Applications consist of:

- Application Form

- Typed personal statement no longer than one page double spaced.

Applicants for the Amrhein scholarship may be called for personal interviews. The Canadian-American Studies Committee will review all applications and make all award decisions. Decisions will not be subject to appeal.

Application Deadline: April 1st

Completed applications or questions should be directed to:
